

CHILDPROTECTION
Southern New England Conference

CHILD PROTECTION POLICIES

Two-Adult Policy

Open Door Policy

Six-Month Waiting Period for New Volunteers

Training in Child Protection

SNEC: Required for all employees & volunteers

Adult Screening & Background Checks

SNEC: Required for all employees & volunteers

Seventh-day Adventist Church
Southern New England Conference

sneconline.org/childprotection

CHILD PROTECTION MINISTRIES

Reporting Child Abuse

Southern New England Conference stands against all forms of child abuse. Please partner with us to prevent and protect all minors from inappropriate conduct by adults or other children.

If you have any suspicion of a minor being harmed please report it to your local state agency. We support and encourage you to take action against abuse.

Report Suspected Child Abuse in your State

Connecticut:

1-800-842-2288
(24-hour Careline)

Massachusetts:

1-800-792-5200
(24-hour Careline)
Nearest DCF Office from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Rhode Island:

1-800-742-4453
(24-hour line for at home caretakers or parents)
Nearest Police Station

Need support in making a report or have questions about reporting abuse? Call our Child Protection office. All reports to SNEC will be reported to state authorities.

Southern New England Conference

978-365-4551

sneconline.org/childprotection